After many seasons of growing with no synthetic fungicides, pesticides, herbicides or fertilizers, they've produced successful crops and harbor no regrets. Blossom Bluff Orchard does one-half of their sales at farmer's markets and restaurants. This past year Blossom Bluff has added a farm store and is on the Fresno County Summer Fruit Trail. They are also back at the Vineyard Farmers Market on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

"I feel good about every aspect of this work," said Bryce.
"I never have trouble sleeping."
