Bruno Luconi has been farming for almost 30 years, but he is the first to admit this isn't about him. Completely devoted to Mokichi Okada's philosophies and methods of Nature Farming, Luconi believes that art, natural farming, and health can create a better world. "Everything we do in life is supposed to involve art," he said. This is illustrated by the exquisitely curving rows of fruit trees and beautiful flowers of the Mokichi Okada Association's (MOA) Oasis Garden.

TO PURCHASE: Vineyard Farmer's Market in Fresno, Wed. 3 - 6 pm and Sat. 7 am - 12 pm, and direct from their farm.
